The Race to Alaska

Adam Cove recounts the preparation and experience of the latest 750 nautical mile race through the challenging waters of the Canadian wilderness. Racing a Marshall 18 catboat from Port Townsend, Washington to Ketchikan, Alaska, he encounters the threats of double-digit current velocities, whirlpools, constantly changing weather, frigid ocean temperatures, grizzly bears, and breaching whales. The stunning photos and video only begin to tell the story of this single-handed adventure.

3:15pm to 4:30ish Setting up your Boat for Ease of Sailing/Trailering (Salon E)
Join David Morrow as he shares his vast experiences in setting up your boat for ease of sailing.

3:15pm to 4:30ish Cat Food (Salon F)
Be it a day sail, a weekender or an extended cruise, preparing breakfast, lunch, and/or dinner or snacks on a catboat poses unique challenges. Join the CBA's self-proclaimed and self-appointed culinary experts as they explore the equipment, tools, techniques, menu plans and recipes calculated to satisfy the most persnickety members of your crew and passengers. Samples may be available if you are willing to take a risk with comestibles designed for voyages afloat.

3:00pm to 5:00ish Mystic Walk (Meet in Lobby) – weather permitting
Join fellow catboaters for a self-guided 3-mile walk in Bluff Point State Park. The trail has amazing vistas overlooking Long Island Sound. Meet in the Lobby for a short van ride to a scenic locale. Dress appropriately.

5:00pm to 7:00pm Sociability Event (More Nibbles and Cash Bar & Music with a performance from the Cabin Fever Bluegrass Band)

Sunday, February 9th

8:30am to 10:00am Restoration of EVENTIDE – our Sunday morning seminar will feature David Stimson as he shares his work to preserve and restore EVENTIDE. The former charter boat often seen plying the waters of Hyannis.

10:30am to 1:00pm CBA Steering Committee Meeting
